SECTION 1: GRADY HEALTH SYSTEM BACKGROUND

Grady Health System (“GHS”) is one of the Southeast’s largest public hospital systems. With a delivery system that includes affiliations with public health organizations, medical education programs, and community advocates, GHS provides quality, cost-effective, and customer focused health care to residents of metropolitan Atlanta and citizens of the State of Georgia. Grady Health System is comprised of Grady Memorial Hospital (953 licensed beds), Crestview Health and Rehabilitation Center (388 licensed long-term care beds), the Infectious Disease Center (HIV/AIDS), the Loughlin Radiation Oncology Center, the Maloof Imaging Center, six (6) community health centers, the Regional Perinatal Center, the State of Georgia Poison Control Center, the Georgia Cancer Center for Excellence, The Marcus Stroke and Neuroscience Center, Grady EMS- Atlanta’s 911 ambulance service, the region’s premiere Level I trauma center and nationally renowned emergency medicine and burn centers.

Grady Memorial Hospital opened in 1892 to provide medical care for the indigent and emergency health care for all residents of the Atlanta community. Grady is currently operated by the Grady Memorial Hospital Corporation d/b/a Grady Health System.

Medical care is provided under contract with Emory University and Morehouse Schools of Medicine. GHS also operates three (3) professional training programs in medical technology, radiation oncology, and radiation technology. GHS averages more than 29,000 inpatient visits and more than 600,000 outpatient visits annually, including over 150,000 emergency care visits (including psychiatric emergency).

MISSION STATEMENT

Grady improves the health of the community by providing quality, comprehensive healthcare in a compassionate, culturally competent, ethical and fiscally responsible manner.

Grady maintains its commitment to the underserved of Fulton and DeKalb counties, while also providing care for residents of metro Atlanta and Georgia.

Grady leads through its clinical excellence, innovative research and progressive medical education and training.

VISION

Grady Health System will become the leading public academic healthcare system in the United States.

VALUES
