

Grady Nurse Extern Program

Grady's Nurse Extern Program allows rising seniors or soon-to-graduate nursing students to build clinical competencies. Externs work under the direct supervision of a RN mentor who will supervise and direct their learning needs. This is a paid summer position. The program consists of direct and indirect patient care experiences.

Learning Goals

- Building bridges of opportunity
- Enhance skill proficiency
- Develop competencies through preceptorship
- Develop and sustain a relationship with the new nurse
- Provide practical experience with theory
- Provide opportunities for development of critical thinking
- Provide opportunities to experience multicultural norms
- Provide opportunities to develop leadership skills through preceptorship
- Maintain competency through ongoing training and validation

Eligible applicants are encouraged to apply early, as positions are limited. Cohorts begin in June. Applications open in January.
